The Red Tree (2018) - IMDb

The Red Tree is a very ambitious effort, an accomplished metafiction that is certainly horrific, but also stands as a piece of literature. It's a damn shame the book is saddled with some of the worst, and most misleading, cover art I've seen in some time. (It's packaged as a YA novel, with a brooding goth chick on the front.

A story within a story within a story. The Red Tree is Kiernan's most complete and extraordinary novel so far. It reaches outwards, ignoring the boundaries of genre and convention to present something thoroughly modern with deep roots. She makes old horrors new, and evokes the gloomy mythos of New England with spare, almost brutal language.
